

https://www.hammondstar.com/news/gnarly-barley-wins-attraction-of-the-year/article\_24355cc3-78c1-5128-af3a-d836a738fa39.html

Gnarly Barley wins Attraction of the Year

Jan 30, 2023

Parish and state officials congratulate Gnarly Barley's Zac and Cari Caramonta for being named the 2023 Attraction of the Year. Tangipahoa Parish President Robby Miller, second from right, and his wife, Donna, and Tangipahoa Tourism Executive Director Carla Tate, right, joined in the celebration.

Tangipahoa Parish attraction and business Gnarly Barley Brewing has received the prestigious 2023 Louey Award for Attraction of the Year.

“This is a well-deserving award for Zac and Cari Caramonta and Gnarly Barley,” said Tangipahoa Parish Convention and Visitors Bureau’s Executive Director Carla Tate. “The entries for the Louisiana Travel Association’s Award of the Year is very competitive, and we are honored to have nominated Gnarly Barley for the award.”

The Louisiana Travel Association will be honoring and showcasing individuals and organizations which have made outstanding contributions to the Louisiana tourism industry.

The Louey Award was presented during the LTA Annual Meeting Awards Dinner.

